

Gentlemen:

I am opposed to the lifting of the ban on single ownership of a newspaper and a TV station in a single media area. Doing so works as a disservice to the public. In areas where either grandfathering or lax enforcement have allowed the practice have demonstrated a marked reduction in the quality of the print media.